Election To Exceed the 6% Limitation

12A

QUESTION: Shall the City of Elgin levy $35,646.00 outside Oregon Constitutional Limitation for the fiscal year 1980-81?

PURPOSE: Without the approval of the voters, the City of Elgin has authority to levy its tax base of $39,350.00. This tax base plus other revenue sources results in a need of $35,646.00 to balance the proposed budget. The 1980-81 proposed budget will provide personnel service, materials and services.

EXPLANATION: If this measure is approved, $39,646.00 of the taxes levied will be financed partially by the State of Oregon. This amount requires a tax rate of $4.46 assessment per $1000 true cash value prior to the application of any offset. This amount represents the sum of the levy plus the levy authorized within the tax base limitation. This levy, if approved, will be subject to Homeowner Property Tax Relief as provided by the 1979 Legislature.
